PROFILE

Equestrian industry executive, entrepreneur and international show jumping athlete. Over twenty years building, managing and commercialising projects across elite sport, event management, sponsorship, media rights, broadcasting, league development and sports technology — across Madrid Horse Week, the National Equestrian League and Ryde TV. Work consistently focused on expanding audiences, improving commercial sustainability and exploring new growth opportunities for the equestrian industry.

SELECTED PROJECTS

National Equestrian League · Founder & CEO · 2021 — Present

Reimagining professional show jumping through teams, media and franchise ownership. Designed the franchise-based, broadcast-native league structured around FEI regulations with a North American expansion roadmap.

Madrid Horse Week · Executive Director · Board Member · 2016 — Present

Strategic, commercial and operational leadership of one of Europe's premier FEI World Cup events. Eight consecutive editions — sponsorship, hospitality, ticketing, media, government relations, venue partnership with IFEMA.

Ryde TV · Founder · 2022 — Present

Sports technology and media venture combining AI, automated production, streaming infrastructure and digital distribution to make professional broadcasting accessible to every equestrian event.

International Show Jumping Athlete · 2002 — Present

Two decades inside the sport as rider, horseman and equestrian professional — competing internationally and developing horses across multiple countries.
